

10th International Workshop on Graphs and Algorithms (GRECS 2024)

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, USA

August 20-21, 2024

GRECS is an annual workshop that brings together researchers from all over the world to present their latest work on graphs and algorithms. The workshop covers all aspects of graph theory, including structural graph theory, algorithmic graph theory, and applications of graph theory to other areas of computer science.

GRECS 2024 will be the 10th in the series of GRECS workshops. The workshop will be held at Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, USA. The workshop will feature invited talks from leading researchers in the field, as well as contributed talks from researchers from all over the world.
