

Don't Look Behind You

In the small town of Willow Creek, where the past is as dark as the night, a group of teenagers stumble upon a terrifying secret that will change their lives forever.

Emily, Ben, Sarah, and Jake are just ordinary kids. They go to school, play sports, and hang out with their friends. But when they decide to explore the abandoned old asylum on the edge of town, they uncover a chilling truth that will haunt them forever.

The asylum was once home to the town's most disturbed criminals. It is said that the ghosts of these inmates still roam the halls, searching for revenge. And when the teenagers stumble upon a hidden room filled with disturbing artifacts, they realize that the asylum's dark history is far from over.

As the teenagers try to unravel the mystery of the asylum, they find themselves drawn into a dangerous game of cat and mouse with a killer who is determined to keep the town's dark secrets hidden.
