The Great War

When the Great War broke out in 1914, Davidson was a lieutenant-colonel. He was given command of the 1st Battalion, Royal Berkshire Regiment.

Davidson led his battalion with distinction in some of the bloodiest battles of the war, including the Battle of the Somme and the Battle of Passchendale.

Davidson was wounded again in the war, but he survived. He returned to England in 1918, a decorated hero.
