

Sri Radha Our Supreme Shelter

Sri Radha, the eternal consort of Lord Krishna, is the embodiment of pure love and compassion. She is the supreme shelter for all who seek refuge in her, and her grace can transform our lives in countless ways.

This book explores the many facets of Sri Radha's divine nature, and offers practical guidance on how to develop a deeper relationship with her. Through the teachings of Srila Prabhupada, the founder-acarya of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON), we will learn about Sri Radha's svarupa (spiritual form), her lila (pastimes), and her prema (love). We will also learn how to develop bhakti (devotion) to Sri Radha, and how to receive her mercy.

The Divine Nature of Sri Radha

Sri Radha is the eternal consort of Lord Krishna, and she is the embodiment of pure love and compassion. She is known by many names, including Srimati Radharani, Radhika, and Kishori. She is the daughter of King Vrishabhanu and Queen Kirtida, and she is the most beloved of all the gopis (cowherd girls) of Vrindavana.

Sri Radha is described in the scriptures as being supremely beautiful, with a complexion like molten gold and eyes like lotus petals. She is always clad in a beautiful sari, and she wears a garland of flowers around her neck. She is also known for her sweet and melodious voice.

Sri Radha is the personification of all that is good and pure. She is the embodiment of love, compassion, kindness, and forgiveness. She is always eager to help those who are in need, and she is always ready to forgive those who have wronged her.

The Pastimes of Sri Radha

Sri Radha's pastimes are full of love, laughter, and adventure. She loves to play with her friends, and she is always ready to help those in need. She is also known for her mischievous nature, and she often plays tricks on her friends and family.

Sri Radha's most famous pastimes are her raslila dances with Lord Krishna. These dances are full of love and devotion, and they represent the highest form of spiritual bliss.

The Prema of Sri Radha

Sri Radha's prema (love) for Lord Krishna is the most powerful force in the universe. It is a love that is selfless, unconditional, and eternal. Sri Radha is always ready to sacrifice everything for Lord Krishna, and she never asks for anything in return.

Sri Radha's prema is a source of great inspiration for all of us. It teaches us that love is the most important thing in life, and that we should always be ready to give love to others without expecting anything in return.

Developing Bhakti to Sri Radha

Bhakti (devotion) to Sri Radha is the key to unlocking the treasure of her grace. There are many ways to develop bhakti to Sri Radha, including:

- Chanting her holy names
- Reading and studying about her
- Serving her devotees
- Visiting her holy places
- Offering her prayers and gifts

As we develop our bhakti to Sri Radha, we will gradually experience her grace in our lives. Her grace can help us to overcome our obstacles, to achieve our goals, and to find true happiness and fulfillment.

Receiving Sri Radha's Mercy

Sri Radha's mercy is a gift that we should all strive to receive. Her mercy can transform our lives in countless ways, and it can help us to reach our full spiritual potential.

There are many ways to receive Sri Radha's mercy, including:

- Praying to her for her help
- Surrendering to her will

- Serving her devotees
- Visiting her holy places
- Reading and studying about her

As we receive Sri Radha's mercy, we will gradually experience her love, compassion, and protection in our lives. Her mercy will help us to overcome our challenges, to achieve our goals, and to find true happiness and fulfillment.

Sri Radha is the supreme shelter for all who seek refuge in her. Her grace can transform our lives in countless ways, and her love can fill us with joy and happiness. As we develop our bhakti to Sri Radha, we will gradually experience her mercy in our lives. Her mercy will help us to overcome our challenges, to achieve our goals, and to find true happiness and fulfillment.

I encourage you to learn more about Sri Radha and to develop a deeper relationship with her. You can do this by reading books about her, chanting her holy names, and visiting her holy places. As you do this, you will gradually experience her love, compassion, and protection in your life.

Thank you for reading.
