

The Mississippi Rifles in the Mexican War: A Story of Bravery and Sacrifice

The Mississippi Rifles was a regiment of volunteers from Mississippi that fought in the Mexican-American War. The regiment was formed in May 1846, and it saw its first action at the Battle of Buena Vista in February 1847. The Mississippi Rifles fought bravely at Buena Vista, and they helped to secure a victory for the American forces.

After Buena Vista, the Mississippi Rifles continued to fight in Mexico. They participated in the siege of Veracruz, and they fought in several other battles, including the Battle of Cerro Gordo and the Battle of Chapultepec. The Mississippi Rifles were one of the most distinguished regiments in the American army during the Mexican-American War, and they played a major role in the American victory.
